Frequently Asked Questions Regarding Associate Membership

Who qualifies as an associate member?

Associate membership is open to interested commercial enterprises, institutions, schools, organizations not considered fiber arts guilds, and any individual who does not belong to a MAFA member guild.—Bylaws, Article III, Section 2

What is the length of the associate membership term?

TWO years. Dues are set by the Board of Directors and approved by Member Guilds. They are payable by Oct. 1 of each year or upon acceptance of membership.—Bylaws, Article III, Section 4

*For example, if an associate member pays dues to join in June, dues will be payable again Oct. 1 of that year and each subsequent U'hYfbUH' year. **

Does an associate member have voting representation in MAFA decision-making?

Associate members shall have no voting representation.—Bylaws, Article IV, Section 4

What are the tangible benefits to associate membership?

Associate members receive conference registration materials and are eligible to attend MAFA conferences and other events. Associate members also receive email notification when a new issue of Threadlines, MAFA's semi-annual online newsletter, has been posted to MAFA's website: www.mafafiber.org

* The Board voted in Spring 2008 to make dues payable for a period of TWO years, so dues paid in Fall 2010 are valid through Oct. 1 2011.
